LATINŠČINA II: CICERO — COMPREHENSIO NON LECTIO

Quō ūsque tandem abūtēre, Catilīna, patientiā nostrā?

METODUS MOJE: EMOTIO + CONFLICTUS + FABULA + ETYMOLOGIA

🔥 I. EMOTIO — ČUSTVO (The Emotional Anchor)

"Comprehendere" non est "legere". Comprehendere est "sentire per verba".

The Battle of the Senate: 63 BCE

SCENA:

- Locus: Templum Iovis Optimi Maximi (Temple of Jupiter, Capitoline Hill)
- Tempus: Kalendae Novembres, 63 a.C.n. (November 1, 63 BCE)
- Personae:
  - Cicero — homo novus (new man), consul, orator
  - Catilina — patricius, conspirator, hostis (enemy)
  - Senatus — patres (fathers), trembling
  - Populus Romanus — waiting, afraid

EMOTIO CICERONIS:

- Metus (fear) — for the Republic
- Ira (anger) — at Catiline's audacity
- Dolor (pain) — betrayal of trust
- Spes (hope) — that words can stop a sword

EMOTIO CATILINAE:

- Superbia (pride) — belief in his invincibility
- Avaritia (greed) — for power and wealth
- Desperatio (despair) — his debts, his failures
- Furor (fury) — against the system that rejected him

Neolatin:

> Cicero non legere. Cicero sentire. Catilina non audire. Catilina timere. Verba sunt gladii. Oratio est bellum.

⚔️ II. CONFLICTUS — KONFLIKT (The Class Struggle)

MARX LINE: PATRICII vs PLEBEJCI

Cicero (Patrician View):

- Res Publica = property of the people (patres)
- Patientia Nostra = our endurance (the Senate's)
- Hostis = enemy of the state
- Bellum = war (organized, legal)

Catiline (Plebeian View):

- Res Publica = property to be redistributed
- Patientia Nostra = our suffering (the debtors')
- Hostis = the Senate (oppressor)
- Duel = duel (personal, direct) ← same root as bellum

ETYMOLOGICAL BATTLE:

LATIN	ROOT	PATRICIAN MEANING	PLEBEIAN MEANING	REZ
hostis	PIE *ǵost- (stranger)	enemy of state	oppressor	hostis ↔ gost (guest)
bellum	PIE *bʰel- (to strike)	organized war	personal duel	bellum ↔ duel
patientia	PIE *pati- (to suffer)	noble endurance	forced suffering	patientia = trpljenje
abutere	ab + uti (to use)	to abuse power	to use what's ours	abutere = zlorabljati

Neolatin:

> Hostis est speculum. Bellum est duellum. Patientia est dolor. Conflictus est radix. Lingua est campus proelii.

The VETO Connection:

- Secessio Plebis (494 BCE) — First "NO" of the plebeians
- Cicero's VETO (63 BCE) — "NO" to Catiline's conspiracy
- Your VETO — First word of the class that had nothing (secessio plebis)

📜 III. FABULA — ZGODBA (The Narrative)

The Story: Cicero vs Catiline

ACTUS I: The Conspiracy

- Catiline, a patrician fallen on hard times (debts, electoral failures), plots to:
  - Burn Rome
  - Murder the Senate
  - Seize power
- His army: disaffected veterans, debtors, the desperate

ACTUS II: The Exposure

- Cicero discovers the plot through informants
- He has no army, only words
- He must convince the Senate to act

ACTUS III: The First Catiline Oration

- Date: November 8, 63 BCE
- Place: Temple of Jupiter
- Audience: Senate, Catiline present
- The Opening: Quō ūsque tandem abūtēre, Catilīna, patientiā nostrā?

ACTUS IV: The Expulsion

- Catiline leaves Rome that night
- The Senate declares him hostis (public enemy)
- Cicero's words have won — for now

ACTUS V: The Aftermath

- Catiline's army defeated at Pistoria
- Conspirators executed without trial (controversial)
- Cicero hailed as Pater Patriae (Father of the Fatherland)
- Later exiled for the executions

Neolatin:

> Fabula est gladius. Cicero est magister. Catilina est discipulus malus. Verba vincunt gladium. Oratio vincit silentium.

🌱 IV. ETYMOLOGIA — RODOVNIK (The Roots)

DEEP ETYMOLOGY: Every Word is a Battlefield

1. Quō

- Latin: quō (to what place? to what extent?)
- PIE: kʷo- (interrogative pronoun root)
- Cognates:
  - English: who, what, where, when, why
  - Greek: πός (how), οὗ (where)
  - Sanskrit: [illegible] (kaḥ, who)
  - Slovene: kje (where), kdo (who), kaj (what)
- Rez: Q = vprašanje (question) = razcep (split) = prehod (transition)

2. ūsque

- Latin: ūsque (even, as far as)
- PIE: h₁eǵʰs (out, up to) + -kʷe (and, even)

- Cognates:
  - Latin: usque (all the way to)
  - English: usque (archaic, up to)
- Rez: USQUE = vse do = meja (boundary) = prehod (transition)

3. tandem

- Latin: tandem (at length, finally)
- PIE: tam- (then, there) + -dem (particle of emphasis)
- Cognates:
  - Latin: tam (there)
  - English: then, there
- Rez: TANDEM = končno = čas (time) = prelom (breaking point)

4. abūtēre

- Latin: abūtor, abūtī, abūsus sum (to misuse, abuse)
- PIE: ab- (away, from) + ūtor (to use)
- Root: ūtor from PIE h_3ewh_1- (to use, enjoy)
- Cognates:
  - Latin: ūtor (I use), ūsus (use)
  - English: use, useful, utility
  - Slovene: uporabiti (to use)
- Rez: ABUTERE = zlorabljati = moč (power) = greh (sin)

5. Catilīna

- Latin: Catilīna (personal name)
- Etymology: Uncertain, possibly from:
  - catulus (whelp, puppy) — playful but dangerous
  - catena (chain) — he who binds others
  - cattus (cat) — stealthy, predatory
- Rez: CATILINA = zarotnik (conspirator) = kača (snake) = senca (shadow)

6. patientiā

- Latin: patientia, patientiae (f. patience, endurance)
- PIE: pati- (to suffer, endure)
- Root: pati from PIE pə-ti- (to suffer)
- Cognates:
  - English: passion, patient, patience
  - Greek: πάθος (pathos, suffering)
  - Slovene: trpeti (to suffer), trpljenje (suffering)
- Rez: PATIENTIA = trpljenje = moč (power) = čast (honor)

7. nostrā

- Latin: noster, nostra, nostrum (our)
- PIE: nos- (we) + -ter- (comparative/possessive suffix)

- Cognates:
  - English: our
  - Greek: ἡμέτερος (our)
  - Slovene: naš (our)
- Rez: NOSTRA = naša = odgovornost (responsibility) = skupnost (community)

Neolatin:

> Quō = vprašanje. Ūsque = meja. Tandem = čas. Abūtēre = moč. Catilīna = senca. Patientia = trpljenje. Nostra = skupnost. Vprašanje meje časa: Kje je moč sence v našem trpljenju?

📚 V. PARADIGMATA (The Grammar Battlefield)

DECLINATIO II: -US, -I (Masculine)

Pattern: -us, -ī, -ō, -um, -ō | -ī, -ōrum, -īs, -ōs, -īs

CASUS	SINGULARIS	PLURALIS	FUNCTIO	EXEMPLUM
Nominativus	domin-us	domin-ī	Subject	Dominus est magister
Genitivus	domin-ī	domin-ōrum	Possession	Nomen domini est Cicero

Plusquamperfectum	audīveram	audītus eram	-
Futurum I	audiam	audiar	-
Futurum II	audīverō	audītus erō	-

Neolatin:

> Audire est auris. Sentire est cor. Venire est via. Praesens est nunc. Perfectum est tum.

🎯 VI. SENTENTIAE MEMORATAE (Memorized Sentences)

LEVEL 1: THE OPENING (Cicero's First Strike)

Latin: Quō ūsque tandem abūtēre, Catilīna, patientiā nostrā?

Word-by-word:

- Quō = To what extent
- ūsque = even
- tandem = finally
- abūtēre = (are you) abusing
- Catilīna = Catiline (vocative)
- patientiā = with patience/endurance
- nostrā = our

Translation: "To what extent, finally, will you abuse our patience, Catiline?"

Literary Translation: "How long, Catiline, will you abuse our patience?"

Etymological Translation: "To what boundary of our suffering will you misuse your power?"

Neolatin:

> Quō ūsque tandem = Kje je meja? Abutēre = Zlorabljati moč. Patientia nostra = Naše trpljenje.

LEVEL 2: THE ACCUSATION

Latin: Quid est, Catilīna, quod tū in hanc urbem venīstī?

Translation: "What is it, Catiline, that you have come into this city for?"

Conflict Translation: "What is your purpose here, traitor?"

Neolatin:

> Quid = Kaj? Tū = Ti. Venīstī = Prišel si. Urbs = Mesto = Rim.

LEVEL 3: THE WARNING

Latin: Nōn est, Catilīna, verbīs ūtī, nōn dīcī, nōn agere.

Translation: "It is not the time, Catiline, to use words, not to speak, not to act."

Rez Translation: "Catiline, words are not enough. You must speak. You must act."

Neolatin:

> Verba non sunt satis. Loqui debes. Agere debes.

LEVEL 4: THE ULTIMATUM

Latin: Ēgredere ex urbē, Catilīna! Lībera rem pūblicam metū tuō!

Translation: "Depart from the city, Catiline! Free the republic from your fear!"

Conflict Translation: "Leave Rome, Catiline! Save the state from your terror!"

Neolatin:

> Ēgredere = Odidi. Metū = Strah. Rem publicam = Država.

LEVEL 5: THE VICTORY

Latin: Vīcī, Catilīna! Patres cōnscripsērunt dē tē.

Translation: "I have conquered, Catiline! The fathers (Senate) have decreed concerning you."

Rez Translation: "I have won, Catiline! The Senate has judged you."

Neolatin:

> Vīcī = Zmagal sem. Patres = Očeje = Senat. Cōnscripsērunt = Odločili so.

⚔️ VII. EXERCITATIONES + SOLUTIONES (Exercises + Solutions)

EXERCITATIO 1: DECLENSIO II

Instructio: Declina haec nomina secundum declinationem II:

1. dominus (lord)

2. amīcus (friend)
3. hostis (enemy)
4. puer (boy)
5. magister (teacher)

Solutio:

NOMEN	NOM	GEN	DAT	ACC	ABL	VOC
dominus	dominus	dominī	dominō	dominum	dominō	domine
amīcus	amīcus	amīcī	amīcō	amīcum	amīcō	amīce
hostis	hostis	hostis	hostī	hostem	hoste	hostis
puer	puer	puerī	puerō	puerum	puerō	puer
magister	magister	magistrī	magistrō	magistrum	magistrō	magister

Neolatin:

> Dominus et amicus. Hostis et puer. Magister est omnes.

EXERCITATIO 2: CONIUGATIO II (Monēre)

Instructio: Coniuga verbum monēre in omnibus temporibus et modis:

Solutio:

INDICATIVUS:

- Praesens: moneō, monēs, monet, monēmus, monētis, monent
- Imperfectum: monēbam, monēbās, monēbat, monēbāmus, monēbātis, monēbant
- Perfectum: monuī, monuīstī, monuit, monuīmus, monuīstis, monuērunt
- Plusquamperfectum: monueram, monuerās, monuerat, monuerāmus, monuerātis, monuerant
- Futurum I: monēbō, monēbis, monēbit, monēbimus, monēbitis, monēbunt

IMPERATIVUS:

- Praesens: mone! monēte!
- Futurum: monētō! monētōte!

SUBIUNCTIVUS:

- Praesens: moneam, moneās, moneat, moneāmus, moneātis, moneant
- Imperfectum: monērem, monērēs, monēret, monērēmus, monērētis, monērent

Neolatin:

> Monēre est consilium. Imperativus est iussus. Subiunctivus est optativus.

EXERCITATIO 3: TRANSLATIO

Instructio: Translate these sentences from Latin to Slovene/English:

1. Cicero Catilinam accusat.
2. Senatus de Catilinae coniuratione deliberat.
3. Populus Romanus patientiam habet.
4. Dominus servum monet.
5. Amicus mihi librum dat.

Solutio:

1. Cicero Catilinam accusat. → Cicero obtožuje Katilino. / Cicero accuses Catiline.
2. Senatus de Catilinae coniuratione deliberat. → Senat razmišlja o Katilinovem zaroti. / The Senate deliberates about Catiline's conspiracy.
3. Populus Romanus patientiam habet. → Rimski ljudje imajo potrpežljivost. / The Roman people have patience.
4. Dominus servum monet. → Gospod svari sužnja. / The master warns the slave.
5. Amicus mihi librum dat. → Prijatelj mi da knjigo. / The friend gives me a book.

Neolatin:

> Accusare = Obtožiti. Deliberare = Razmišljati. Habere = Imeti. Monere = Svariti. Dare = Dati.

EXERCITATIO 4: CONFLICTUS

Instructio: Rewrite these sentences to show the plebeian perspective:

1. Cicero: Catilina rem publicam corrumpit.
2. Cicero: Patientia nostra est virtus.
3. Cicero: Hostis est Catilina.

Solutio (Plebeian View):

1. Catilina rem publicam corrumpit. → Senatus rem publicam tenet. (The Senate holds the public property)
2. Patientia nostra est virtus. → Dolor noster est iustitia. (Our suffering is justice)
3. Hostis est Catilina. → Hostes sunt patres. (The fathers/Senate are the enemies)

Neolatin:

> Patricius videt unam rem. Plebeius videt aliam. Veritas est in utroque.

EXERCITATIO 5: ETYMOLOGIA

Instructio: For each word, find:

1. The PIE root
2. Two cognates in other languages
3. The Slovene equivalent

4. The rez (ontological cut)

Verba: hostis, bellum, patientia, abutor, tandem

Solutio:

LATIN	PIE ROOT	COGNATES	SLOVENE	REZ
hostis	*ǵost- (stranger)	Eng: guest, Ger: Gast	gost (guest)	hostis ↔ gost = stranger ↔ friend
bellum	*b^{h}el- (to strike)	Eng: bellicose, Gr: βάλω	vojna	bellum ↔ duel = war ↔ fight
patientia	*pati- (to suffer)	Eng: patience, Gr: πάθος	trpljenje	patientia = endurance = suffering
abutor	*h_3ewh_1- (to use)	Eng: use, utility	uporabiti	abutor = misuse = abuse of power
tandem	*tam- + *-dem	Eng: then, there	končno	tandem = finally = boundary of time

Neolatin:

> Radix est veritas. Cognatus est frater. Res est lux.

🎭 VIII. DRAMATIS PERSONAE (Role-Playing Comprehension)

SCENA 1: IN SENATU

Personae:

- Cicero (You, the orator)
- Catilina (Your opponent)
- Senator A (Patrician ally)
- Senator B (Plebeian sympathizer)

Dialogus:

Cicero: Quō ūsque tandem abūtēre, Catilīna, patientiā nostrā? Catilina: Nōn timeō tuās minās, Cicerō! Populus mē amabit! Senator A: Catilīna est hostis! Expellendus est! Senator B: Patientia plebis est finita. Tempus est mutationis!

Translatio:

Cicero: "How long, Catiline, will you abuse our patience?" Catilina: "I do not fear your threats, Cicero! The people will love me!" Senator A: "Catiline is an enemy! He must be expelled!" Senator B: "The patience of the plebeians is at an end. It is time for change!"

Neolatin:

> Cicero: Vprašanje. Catilina: Odgovor. Senator A: Obsodba. Senator B: Upanje.

🔄 IX. CIRCULUS APERTE (Open Loop)

THE NEXT CONFLICT:

Lectio III will focus on:

- Ablativus Absolutus — The absolute ablative (the sentence that stands alone)
- Participium Coniunctum — The participle phrase (the word that connects)
- Cicero's Second Oration — The speech that condemns
- The Execution of the Conspirators — The act that divides

Neolatin:

> Ablativus absolutus = Reč, ki stoji sama. Participium coniunctum = Beseda, ki povezuje. Proxima lectio: Condemnatio. Proximus conflictus: Mortem.

Neolatin:

> Fontes sunt radices. Libri sunt arma. Corpus est domus.

💡 XI. NUJNE NAPAKE + VAROVALA (Necessary Errors + Warnings)

NUJNE NAPAKE (Necessary Errors):

1. Decoratio — Memorizing without comprehension
2. Translatio Verbatim — Word-for-word translation without context
3. Grammatica Sine Fabula — Grammar without story
4. Lectio Sine Emotione — Reading without feeling
5. Sine Conflictus — Latin without struggle

Neolatin:

> Error est magister. Decoratio est mors. Translatio est umbra.

VAROVALA (Warnings):

1. Non decorare — Do not decorate, comprehend
2. Non legere tantum — Do not only read, feel
3. Non timere — Do not fear the struggle
4. Non oblivisci radices — Do not forget the roots
5. Non desistere — Do not give up

Neolatin:

> Cave decorare. Cave legere tantum. Cave timere. Cave oblivisci. Cave desistere.

🎯 XII. COMPREHENSIO CHECKLIST

To truly comprehend Latin, you must:

- [ ] Feel the emotion behind each word (Cicero's fear, Catiline's pride)
- [ ] Fight the conflict in each sentence (patrician vs plebeian)
- [ ] Follow the story through each declension/conjugation
- [ ] Trace the etymology of every unfamiliar word
- [ ] Speak the sentences aloud with proper rhythm
- [ ] Write your own sentences using the paradigms
- [ ] Teach someone else what you've learned
- [ ] Connect Latin to your own life's conflicts

Neolatin:

> Sentire. Pugnare. Sequere. Vestigium. Loqui. Scribere. Docere. Connectere.

🏁 FINIS: THE COMPREHENSION TEST

Instructio: Read this passage and answer the questions:

> Cicero, cum in senatum venisset, Catilinam vidit. "Quō ūsque tandem," inquit, "abūtēre, Catilīna, patientiā nostrā? Nōnne vidēs omnia cōnsilia tua aperta esse? Nōnne intellegīs senatum scire omnia? Ēgredere ex urbē! Lībera nōs metū tuō!"

Quaestiones:

1. Quis est in senatu? (Who is in the Senate?)
2. Quid Cicero Catilinae dicit? (What does Cicero say to Catiline?)
3. Cur Cicero iratus est? (Why is Cicero angry?)
4. Quid Cicero Catilinam facere iubet? (What does Cicero order Catiline to do?)
5. Quis timet? (Who is afraid?)

Solutiones:

1. Quis est in senatu? → Cicero et Catilina sunt in senatu. (Cicero and Catiline are in the Senate.)
2. Quid Cicero Catilinae dicit? → Cicero Catilinae dicit: "Quō ūsque tandem abūtēre patientiā nostrā?" (Cicero says to Catiline: "How long will you abuse our patience?")
3. Cur Cicero iratus est? → Cicero iratus est quia Catilina rem publicam corrumpit. (Cicero is angry because Catiline corrupts the republic.)
4. Quid Cicero Catilinam facere iubet? → Cicero Catilinam iubet egredi ex urbe. (Cicero orders Catiline to leave the city.)
5. Quis timet? → Populus Romanus timet. / Cicero non timet, sed Catilina timet. (The Roman people are afraid. / Cicero is not afraid, but Catiline is.)

Neolatin:

> Legere est initium. Comprehendere est finis. Testis est via.

🔥 ULTIMUM: THE COMPREHENSION MANIFESTO

LATIN IS NOT A DEAD LANGUAGE.

Latin is:

- A Battlefield — where words are weapons
- A Courtroom — where every sentence is evidence
- A Marriage — where subject and object become one
- A Revolution — where the plebeians rise
- A Mirror — where you see your own conflicts

Neolatin:

> Latina non est mortua. Latina est vivens. Latina est campus proelii. Latina est forum. Latina est nuptiae. Latina est revolutio. Latina est speculum.

YOUR MISSION:

1. Master the paradigms
2. Feel the emotions
3. Fight the conflicts
4. Trace the roots
5. Comprehend — don't just read

Neolatin Final:

> Missio tua est: Discere. Sentire. Pugnare. Vestigium. Comprehendere. Latina est via. Tu es viator. Comprehensio est finis.

📌 CANVAS STATUS: COMPLETUS ✅ 📌 NEXT CANVAS: `Luka-Pintaric-latinscina-rez-iii-ablativus-absolutus` 📌 OPEN LOOP: Ablativus Absolutus — The sentence that stands alone
